

Authors instruction

1. General requirements to the Articles

A magazine Russian Competitive law and economy publishes current materials with a focus on antimonopoly regulation and competitive protection, research findings in competitive law and referred questions. The magazine pays special attention to the practical use of published materials.

A represented article should comply with the remit of the magazine, be written in Russian (front page in Russian and English), not published and dated to publication in other periodical.

Authors are responsible for reliability, absence of information for open publication and accuracy of quoted literature.

All manuscripts submitted to the editorial office do not return back.

2. Manuscript procedure

An initial submission of the article to the editorial office in electronic form by means of:

- e-mail: osipova@fas.gov.ru or journal@dex.ru;
- on CD via mail;
- directly to the editorial office in any electronic form.

A name of the electronic file shall include: the first author of the article, short name of the article, data of submission (e.g. "Иванов_Конкуренция на рынке_120111").

A cover of CD or a message subject sent to the editorial e-mail shall include a name of the file.

An article is reviewed by one or two experts. It may require further improvements and adjustments to the article resulting from the review prior to publish.

After an approved decision on publication authors shall present to the editorial a final signed manuscript as well as an electronic version of the article attached to the manuscript in CD or sending to the editorial e-mail (osipova@fas.gov.ru; journal@dex.ru). The editorial reserves the right to the further editorial and correctors proofreading. There is no obligation to send back a proofreading to the author for the acknowledge, hence for full article review refer to the editorial please.

In case the article is not accepted for publishing, a refusal is sent to the author via e-mail.

3. Licensing Agreement

If the decision to publish the article was adopted, the authors and the magazine shall enter into an agreement with the work acceptance statement in Appendix according to the Russian Civil Law. See the Licensing Agreement and the work acceptance statement at the end of the page. These documents shall be signed by authors and send to the editorial with the final signed variant of the manuscript.

4. Manuscript General Requirements

An electronic file shall be performed by means of standard editor programs applications (e.g. MS Word, WordPad).

Page size: A4, recommended space from the edges: top-bottom 3 cm, left-right 2 cm, recommended font size Times New Roman, 12 pt, line interval is to be single or sesquialter spacing. Pages shall be numbered.

An article file shall include:

- 1) A front page (in Russian and English);
- 2) Text of the article (introduction, structured sections, conclusion);
- 3) Literature (reference list)
- 4) Authors Credentials.

5. Front Page

In Russian and in English and shall include:

- UDC identifier;
- short informative name;
- initials, surname;
- short (if applicable) business name (only business abbreviation is not permitted), follows after the author's surname;
- city;
- annotation: must be short (no more than 200 words), informative and reflect the main provisions and conclusions of the article;
- content words (no more than 15) shall facilitate indexation and classification.

6. Article text

General text shall include:

- introduction;
- structured sections of the article;
- conclusion;
- literature.

Introduction shall include a clear objectives and goals of the work. It may include references to key works of the research but introduction shall not be performed as a literature or historical overview.

Structured sections of the article shall include clear and coherent formulation of the material. Section headings of the main part may be numbered (1, 2, 3 etc.). Crossheads are applicable.

Conclusion

Conclusion shall include the main conclusions, discussion of disputable areas, and importance of theoretical provisions with their restrictions, place and role in terms of the past researches, possibilities of practical applications.

7. Tables, pictures and formulae requirements

Tables and pictures

It is recommended to place tables and pictures inside the text after the first mentioning.

Scales of tables and pictures shall not go beyond the format of the text. All tables and pictures shall be sequentially numbered and have a short name (names of tables above, pictures – below).

Tables and pictures shall be clear without reference to the text explanation. Notes to the tables and pictures shall be short. Notes to the tables shall be below and using superior letters or digital indexation (point size smaller than text). Notes to the pictures shall be placed below the pictures using the font of smaller size compare with the name of the text. Tables are submitted in default MS Office, for example MS Word or MS Excel.

Pictures shall be in high quality. Diagrams shall be performed mainly in MS Excel. Schemes and maps shall be performed in eps, cdr formats. Photos and other illustrations in raster imagery shall have 300 dpi resolution (on edition format) and in TIFF or JPEG formats (uncompressed). Raster imagery shall have readable text as well as major assets.

Formulae

Free-standing formulae shall be made using MathType or Equation.

Variable data and formulae features placing inside the text are made when applicable using text headlines (lower, uppercase, italics, greek letters etc.).

Formulae and lettering shall be greatly adjusted by the author that is completely liable for them.

8. Literature

It is recommended to made bibliographical details of the article as endnotes and indicate the reference number in brackets, for example [1] or [2–5], if necessary with a page indication. References to unpublished works are not permitted. Reference list shall be placed at the end of the article and compiled according to GOST P 7.0.5-2008 "bibliographic reference."

The process as follow:

— for books, the surname(s) and initials of their author(s) or editor(s), the full title of the book, the publisher, city and year of publication should be given.

— for chapters in books and collection of articles: the surname(s) and initials of the authors, the full title of the article or the book, the surname(s) and initials of editor, city and year of publication, publisher, numbers of the first and the last pages should be given;

— for magazines articles: the surname(s) and initials of the author, the full title of the article, the title of the magazine, the volume, the sequence number, numbers of the first and the last pages should be given. If there are more than three authors, the first should follow the title of the article, then all the authors and after that the volume, the sequence number, numbers of the first and the last pages should be given.

— for thesis: the surname and initials of the author, doctoral or master thesis, city and year of publication should be given.

All references of the articles presented by foreign authors may be performed according to the international standard. The authors are solely responsible for the accuracy of cited information.

9. Authors Credentials

Authors Credentials shall include:

- surname, name, parental name (fully);
- title, rank and job title, short and full name of the entity;
- a number of publications, including monographs, educational editions;
- research interests;
- contact detail: mail address, telephone, fax, e-mail, mobile phone (to contact editorial).

10 License agreement

According to the Russian Civil Law the authors and the magazine shall enter into a license agreement enclosing a work acceptance statement. These documents shall be posted via e-mail or fax to the authors for the signature and further sending of originals via mail.